GREAT WATERS PART VI:

Welcome to Great Waters.

If you're reading this menu right now, we probably owe part of our success to you. Thank you. For over a decade it has been our privilege to serve you. We've been here through two presidents, three mayors, an NHL All Star game, an NHL lock-out, ten winter carnivals, one Ice Castle and two ice patios. We've grown this business on a simple idea: people want great beer and food, and they'll keep coming back if we deliver. So thank you to all our old friends who keep coming back to visit us. To our new friends: welcome and thanks for stopping in.

If beer is proof that God loves us, then Head Brewer Bob DuVernois is our own renegade guardian angel. Bob joined us over a year ago, and the beer is better than ever. We've had some talented brewers over the years, but none have had the chutzpah that Bob does. Sure, he brews all of our signature ales, but he is often at his best when he's pushing the boundaries of beer. Cases in point:

- The Braunwit – A rare blend of Brown Ale and Wit Beer, made with Trappist yeast.
- The Scarlet Pimpernel – A ruby red ale with basswood honey, chamomile and beets.
- Skip-n-go Naked Ale – A unique invention spiced with lemongrass and naked oats.
- Fleurious D – An ale celebrating our 500th batch of beer!

The King Boreas Imperial Wit brought home the coveted Peoples' Choice Snow Shoe Award from Winterfest, a local beer and jazz festival of some repute. If you see Bob working feverishly back in the brewhouse or studying his creations behind the bar, give him a thankful nod for all the hard work that goes into each pint.

Thanks again to all patrons, staff, family and friends that have made these past ten years so memorable. Here's to many happy returns. Cheers!
